

Professional Development 2009

Patrick Studios Australia is offering a professional development program catering for dancers aspiring to a career in the Performing Arts.

This program is designed to train and develop dancers in the areas of strength, flexibility, technique and creative expression training. Keeping the passion, love and drive for dance, paving the way for a long standing successful career in the Arts.

About the Course

The Professional Development Program at Patrick Studios Australia commencing in 2009 will be a physical program run 5 days a week.

Curriculum

Subjects included in the curriculum will range from Classical Ballet, Jazz, Hip Hop, Tap, Musical Theatre, African Dance, Contemporary, Vocal Training and Acrobatics. There will also be Master Classes in MakeUp, Grooming and Presentation for auditions and castings.

Students will be expected to perform two different songs at the end of each term in preparation for auditions.

Additionally, this curriculum will be supplemented and supported by the yoga and Pilates components that encourage core muscular strength and support for mobility, flexibility and injury prevention.
